

The TV Kid

The book called “The TV Kid “ by Betsy Byars is very weird. It’s about a kid who really really really likes TV! Later he goes under a house and gets bitten by a rattlesnake! He goes outside and falls over. Then a police officer comes by and takes him to the hospital. Why do all these things happen at once? Read to find out!

If you like books about kids then you might like this one. I’d recommend this book to kids ages 10+
